

Nonprofit Leadership Collaborative Fellowship Application 2014

Introduction

The Fellows Program partners outstanding nonprofit management students (as demonstrated by academic success, character and commitment to the sector) in academic year fellowships in a selected nonprofit organization. The student would be expected to maintain weekly hours (a minimum of 10) as an intern in the organization, complete a major project and participate in professional development and networking events with the leadership from the organization. Fellows will receive a scholarship of $5,000, academic credit and a travel stipend of $1,000.
